

MONTANA HEALTHCARE PROGRAMS NOTICE

February 15, 2019

FQHC, Hospitals, RHC, IHS, Mid-Level Practitioners,
Physicians, and Public Health Clinic Providers

Effective Immediately

DOT Medical Examination Coverage

Effective immediately, Montana Healthcare Program will reimburse coverage for work-related medical physical examinations not paid by the member's employer. Montana Medicaid is the payer of last resort.

Claims submitted to Montana Medicaid must be billed with an appropriate E/M procedure code and covered diagnosis, such as, a routine check-up or encounter for examination for driving license.

Examples of work-related examinations include Department of Transportation (DOT), aviation or other health status dependent job exams.

Montana Medicaid does not cover medical disability examinations.
